

Curriculum Vitae

Name : ABDUL RAHMAN BIN MOHD NASIR

Designation : Valuation Officer / Research Officer
Research & Development Programme
National Institute of Valuation (INSPEN)
Valuation and Property Services Department,
Ministry of Finance, Malaysia

Started work as Valuation Executive with Colliers Jordan Lee & Jaafar (JH) Pte Ltd in Johor Bahru, Johore, Malaysia in 2000. He joined government service in 2002 and held the post of Valuation Officer in Valuation and Property Services, State of Johore, Ministry of Finance, Malaysia.

Through out his career in the Valuation Department he has carried out property valuation for statutory and non-statutory purposes. He has also valued various types of properties ranging from small agricultural plot, to specialised property such as Kuala Lumpur International Airport and plant and machinery valuation.

Presently, he is involved with Departmental group of Instructor giving lecture to the Department's staff as well as participants in the Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme in valuation methods and plant and machinery valuation.

He has produced various in house papers in the field of valuation. Some of the papers are Valuation of tree crops, the differences of valuation practices between government and private valuer for land acquisition cases in Malaysia, valuation of tiger prawn industry and the development of the Johore Custom, Immigration and Quarantine Complexes.

He is currently a Valuation Officer / Research Officer with the National Institute of Valuation (INSPEN), Valuation and Property Services Department, Ministry of Finance Malaysia.